Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a transfer of real estate as follows: August 21, by Henry Schmalbach to William D. McCoy, for $1,800, a lot on the corner of North Penn street and alley running parallel with Zane street and north of Zane street.

In the Police Court.

In the police court yesterday W. H. Wallace paid $1 and costs for a plain drunk. Frankie Kraus, for disorder, was sent to jail. Ella Holdeslaw was dismissed. Mike Barnes, for a plain drunk, went to the hill. James and Andrew Kylnski, disorderlies, went to the hill for fifteen days in default of fines of $1 and costs each.

Well Known Mail Agent to Retire.

John S. Hamilton, who has been in the mail service for twenty years, will retire permanently on Saturday. He is now running on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh road, and everybody along that line knows Jack Hamilton as one of the most efficient mail agents on the road. He will make his home with his son and daughter in Indiana. James E. Hebard is the name of his successor.

Picnic at the Park.

Yesterday the Young Men's Society, of the St. Alphonsus church, gave a picnic at Wheeling Park, that was well attended, especially by the families of the congregation. It was for the benefit of the St. Alphonsus orphans' home, and a very neat sum was realized from the outing. The attendance was very large last evening, several car loads of picnickers going out on the Elm Grove road.

Stonewall Jackson's "Mammy."

"Aunt" Millie Chapin, who died in Harrison county a day or two ago, was born in 1793, and was consequently 102 years old. In childhood she was a slave of Harman Blannerhassett, later on was sold to a well-known lawyer of his day named Pindall, then passing into the Chapin family, by whom she was owned up to her emancipation. She was employed as nurse at the birth and babyhood of "Stonewall" Jackson and was known by him as "Mammy" up to the time of his death.

The Hibernian Aftermath.

The generosity of the ladies who assisted in the picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, at Wheeling Park Wednesday, was so great in the way of refreshments, that a great amount was left over from the picnic. This was placed in the basement in the Cathedral yesterday afternoon and throughout the evening ice cream, cake, etc., found ready sale. Considerable food was sent to the St. John's orphans' home and to the North Wheeling hospital.

Appointing a Prosecuting Attorney.

The impression has been very general, and has gotten into the newspapers, that the successor to Prosecuting Attorney Howard, in case of his resignation, will be appointed by the board of county commissioners. This is an entire mistake. The law says a vacancy in the office of prosecuting attorney shall be filled by appointment by the judge of the circuit court, which in the case of Ohio county, of course means the two judges. The county commissioners have nothing at all to do with it.

The Fifty Second Ohio.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Fifty Second Ohio Volunteer Infantry, will be held in Pittsburgh, Tuesday at 7 p. m. On Wednesday morning they will meet in Post room No. 236 at 9 a. m., in the Thirty-first ward, South Side, for business and a reunion of the Third Brigade. Report all deaths to N. B. Stewart, Barnesville. Entertainment for comrades and wives can be had by addressing A. H. Kaufman, 24 Maple avenue, Pittsburgh. R. H. Maxwell, president.

THE CANAL PROJECT.

Wheeling People Want to See the Project Pushed Forward.

SLACK WATER AT THIS POINT

Is Considered by Many to be Necessary if Wheeling is to be Greatly Benefited—Otherwise a Change of "Bottoms" at Pittsburgh Would be Necessary.

The project for the building of a ship canal to connect the Ohio river at Pittsburgh with the lake at Conneaut, mentioned in the advantages of which was made in the INTELLIGENCER yesterday morning, is received in the local commercial community with a pronounced degree of favor. However, in order to make the canal of practical benefit to Wheeling, many people considered it necessary that the Ohio river be "locked" from Pittsburgh at least as far as Wheeling. Otherwise it is claimed that the necessary changing of "bottoms" for freight bound to or from Wheeling would take away the advantages that would devolve to Wheeling. Without this system of locks on the Ohio to this port, ore and other freight destined for Wheeling could not be brought here in the original "bottoms" three months out of the twelve, consequently the transfer would add considerably to the freight cost to Wheeling consignees. Estimates as to the cost of the locks on the Ohio to Wheeling are not available, but it would be beyond the enterprise of any corporation, and only the national government could successfully undertake their construction. Aside from the canal purposes slackwater navigation between Wheeling and Pittsburgh would be of almost incalculable benefit to the two cities.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:55 o'clock the last Atlantic City excursion of the season left over the Pennsylvania road for the east. Though this one is not so liberally patronized as some of the previous ones when the weather was some warmer, the excursion can be said to have been a successful one, about sixty persons going from Wheeling. At 3 o'clock every berth in the Atlantic Coast Line sleeper Corsair had been taken. Among those who left were the following:

Mrs. Bowler and daughter, Mrs. McCluskey, W. H. Hearne and wife, Fred F. Faris and wife, H. F. Behrens, John A. Topping and family, Miss Nellie Topping, George J. Mathison, M. Colvig and wife, William Colvig, George E. Stifel and family, A. Klotz, of Bellaire, William Parks and family, of Bellaire, L. J. Metz and wife, J. C. Barkley, Mrs. M. Reilly, P. J. Green, S. A. Jenkins, William Graham, Jr., Arthur Reynolds and sister, H. G. Zane, Mrs. Miller and B. M. Caldwell.

Many of the excursionists will not go on to Atlantic City to-day, but intend stopping off at Philadelphia this morning.

YOU WANT TO GO

To the Two Nights of Summer Opera at Wheeling Park Casino.

By the raising of the floor at the Wheeling Park Casino all the objections that were made at former entertainments given at that place have been overcome, and there is no question but what the Arion Opera company, which is to hold the boards at this magnificent place of amusement, will be greeted with large audiences on August 30 and 31. On the first night "The Bohemian Girl" will be sung with those tuneful and well known songs, "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," "The Heart Bowed Down," and "Then You'll Remember Me." This opera will be repeated on Friday afternoon at the matinee. On Friday evening "The Chimes of Normandy" will be presented.

The productions are given under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, and in addition to these attractions on Friday the Masons will have an outing at the park, which resort is as beautiful as paradise at this season of the year. The wives and families of Masons will hold a reception at the park restaurant on that day, which will be enlivened by concerts by the Opera House band and speeches by eloquent orators.

The Arion Opera Company is composed of acknowledged artists and a splendidly trained chorus. The acoustic properties of the casino are very sympathetic for such work, and all who attend may be assured that they will be well repaid for the outlay they incur.

One order for thirty reserved seats has already been received and the total sale promises to be very large. It commences Monday morning, August 27, at House's music store, Market street.
